OUR SPEAKER

DANETTE D. ADAMS

Danette D. Adams currently serves as the Director of Student Leadership and Engagement at Clark Atlanta University. She has worked in Higher Education for over 20 years.

Working in Higher Ed affords her the opportunity to assist students in preparing for college and beyond. She started in the Office of Admissions and currently works in Student Affairs. With that transition, it is evident that her skills in working with students go far beyond recruiting and mentoring students. She enjoys working with her students in various capacities on campus. She has served as an Adjunct Professor, campus advisor for the CAU Chapter of the NAACP, Golden Key National Honor Society, and Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. She currently advises Student Government Association and Royal Court. She has been actively involved with the alumni association since graduation.

She is a native of East Cleveland, Ohio, who has resided in Atlanta for over 20 years. She is a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Atlanta Suburban Chapter, National Council of Negro Women (NCNW) Lifetime Member, National Association for the Advancement of Color People (NAACP), NASPA-Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education, and Clark Atlanta University National Alumni Association.
